Authority and Purpose
Chapter 1442, Statutes of 1989 created the Petroleum Financing Collection Account in the California Economic Development Grant and Loan Fund (#922) solely for the purpose of receiving charges, fees, and income, as specified for the purpose of funding those costs necessary to protect the state's position as a lender-creditor.

Administering Agency
Department of Commerce/Org 2200

Major Sources
Loan application fees, collection costs, income earned on any asset recovered pursuant to a loan default, as specified.

Disposition
For those costs necessary to protect the state's position as a lender-creditor, including, but not limited to, foreclosure expenses, auction fees, title searches, appraisals, real estate brokerage fees, attorney fees, mortgage payments, insurance payments, utility costs, inventory, and additional expenditures to purchase a senior lien in foreclosure or bankruptcy proceedings.

Appropriation Authority
Section 15399.14 of the Government Code provides that the funds in the account may be expended, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for those costs necessary to protect the state's position as a lender-creditor.

State Appropriations Limit
Always Excluded—Revenues in this fund are not proceeds of taxes and even after transfer, will never become proceeds of taxes because the major revenue source is derived from a Trust and Agency Fund. (Non-Federal)

Historical Comments
Chapter 229, Statutes of 2003 repealed Section 15399.18 related to the Petroleum Financing Collection Account.
This fund is abolished effective January 1, 2004. Fund balance transferred to the General Fund.
